

Liquid Horizon

Founded in the year 2000 LIQUID HORIZON is a progressive Metal band whose main influences include Savatage, Dokken, Vanden Plas and Dream Theater. So here's what this is all about: Powerful music with a pumping beat, melodic vocal lines, heavy guitar riffing and spheric keyboards.

Not only is LIQUID HORIZON's music far away from the clichés you've heard a thousand times before -- the same can be said about their lyrics that reflect living in a modern and not so safe world. After the release of the URBAN LEGENDS album in 2004 the band was playing lots of live venues including concerts with bands like Vanden Plas and Adler's Appetite, the new band of former Guns N' Roses drummer Steven Adler.

Now LIQUID HORIZON are back with new and unreleased songs following the idea of an ambitious concept: All songs from the forthcoming album REVOLUTIONS tell a story about the struggle for freedom -- including a trilogy about the French Revolution.

LIQUID HORIZON's sound is fresh, it is heavy and they show us that there is more to come...
